

Rec Meeting

December 2nd, 2015

In attendance: Jo, Sherri, Jennifer, Lynn and Cindy

Meeting began at 6:00- Lynn made a motion to start

No public discussion

Directors Report

The budget has been presented to the Town Manager for review.

Drums Alive is consistent with more anticipated members in the New Year

Senior Stretch and Preschool are consistent as well.

Sherri put in for vacation for Christmas and New Year. Time will be lost if not taken.

Youth Baseball will start during this time but is covered.

Conference in January

Northern New England Parks and Rec awarded Scholarship and hotel in Bartlett, New Hampshire for Sherri.

The conference is January 5-7.

Our scheduled meeting will be on Thursday instead of Wednesday.

Sherri will submit a recap of the conference in the Newsletter.

Turkey Plunge: see attached

Additional eating can take place at the time of registration.

Changing areas will increase to 4 rooms per tent.

Jo will bring heaters to use in the tent area

Let Mt. Lakes know that we will give them people to support any of their events

RR Park

Parker Hill Band cannot do the scheduled concert

It is scheduled now for May 14th and will be at the Armory so we can advertise as scheduled.

Next meeting brainstorm session for RR Park ideas.

Christmas Caroling

Held December 19th at 6pm at the Morrill Bldg. Cookies and Hot Cocoa will be provided

Movie Night

All are invited to participate in a joint venture with Mountain Lakes. It's a free movie to the Community. Miles and Otis

There will be popcorn and cocoa.

The ice Skating Rink will be open on December 29th

7:00

Motion to Adjourn: Jo

2nd: Lynn