Learn About Funding Sources for NH and VT Businesses

New Hampshire and Vermont offer an abundance of funding sources for small businesses. Many business are unaware that these sources exist. If you are a small businesses in New Hampshire or Vermont or are considering starting a business in our region, this forum will help you identify alternative and traditional funding sources that can provide valuable capital for your business. Whether you are following a classical business model or follow a non-traditional model such as those individuals and businesses engaged in the "creative economy, this forum is for you!

Presenters will include:

- Ross Hart, Vermont Small Business Development Center
- Chris Wellington, Grafton County Economic Development Council
- David Parker, Community Capital of Vermont

Other resources will also be available including local bank representatives and information about town revolving loan funds. Light refreshments will be served.

This event is FREE and open to all but RSVPs are requested. RSVP to Marvin Harrison at mharrison@wrsb.com.
