

WOODSVILLE FILED A LAWSUIT THAT PASSED AT TOWN MEETING

- The Town can be funded by the Town at the annual town meeting.
- They're not setting the tax rate at all – not even on the articles that have not been disallowed.
- Yes, talked to Jamie Dowe – DRA Liaison – didn't get anywhere with that. Now the Commissioner is saying that it is out of their hands and it is in the Department of Justice.
- No tax rate set and no tax bill issued. They asked Drummond to issue a letter. They're claiming that there is a conflict because Drummond works for the school board or the Town.
- What is Bridget doing about all of this? Dragging her feet.
- Mitchell Group – Been dealing with Naomi Butterfield on HR issues.
- Cash – How many months of revenues do we have? Just under $300,000 still in the general fund and then, when took out the million and a half. Tax anticipation note.
