2. PUBLIC APPEARANCES /COMMENTS/PROPOSALS: Mark Goodrich of Dubois and King, Susan Tann, Darwin Clogston.

3. Review Correspondence: None

4. Old Business:

A. Beacon Discussion: There will be more test with the beacon to insure that the light will not be a problem with nearby residents. Susan had several questions about the beacon and Dennis and Mark were able to answer these questions.

B. House Inspection: Dennis reported that he is working on contacting someone to do the inspection, but it will be in the fall before anyone could do it.

C. Airport Awareness Day finalization: Dennis – sponsorship letters, contact pilot for the use of his hangar:

- Tom – contact police

- Stuart – contact fire department and ask about getting tables

- Cliff – contact Lynn Perry about food for the event

5. New Business: Mark reported that the national FAA has announced that it will make available 1.5 billion dollars for airports in need of upgrades. Applications will need to be sent in and airports that may be chosen would get the improvement grant money at 100%. This means that no money would come from each airport that may get the grant. The commission agreed to file an application.
