Subject: [EXTERNAL] RE: Haverhill, Town of - 2023 Tax Rate - Demand

Mr. Maher and Mr. Hawkins:

This is to inform you that on Tuesday, January 17, 2023, the Department intends to begin the process to set the tax rates for the Town of Haverhill and the Woodsville Fire District. The rates will include the full suite of rates for the entities including municipal, school, SWEPT, county, and districts. The process is an interactive one and as long as town (and Woodsville) administration personnel and the governing bodies are available to do their parts in that process, and there are no unexpected issues, it could be finalized in one business day.

Have a good weekend.

Good Afternoon Attorneys Lombardi and Roth:

Attached please find a demand made on behalf of the Town of Haverhill that the Department of Revenue Administration immediately set the Tax Rate for Tax Year 2022 so that tax bills can be issued and so the Town and School can continue to function.

I would like an update as to status as early as possible due to the exigency of this situation. I can be reached any time whether it be today, tonight, or this weekend, at (978)994-9116. My partner Chris Hawkins can be similarly reached on his cell phone at (603)512-7868.

For the reasons identified in the letter, if prompt action is not taken by Monday, we will be seeking emergency relief from the Superior Court on Tuesday.

All the best,

Eric Maher
